

Maranatha News

OCTOBER 2022

From Pastor Lloyd...

Dear folks at Maranatha,

"I don't know how to adequately express thanks to you for the gift of a two-month Sabbatical break. It has given me time to knock several things off the "to do list" (some of which have been there for years). It has allowed for extra family time with some of our adult kids (times when they come stay for several days are becoming more and more rare). It gave Jean and I an opportunity for a trip together to take in an extraordinary Christian music conference (Singing praises to the Lord with over 7,000 people and hearing some nationally known speakers was a valuable time of spiritual recharging for both of us). And it has given me times of solitude with the Lord, to enjoy His awesome creation, read His Word and other inspiring books, and to map out some things for ministry at Maranatha this fall. Let me give you a sneak preview of a couple of them!

I look forward to being back to weekly worship with you in October and sharing God's Word from the pulpit. The Lord has put on my heart to preach through the Apostle Paul's letters to Timothy and Titus. Though they are letters written specifically to two young pastors, they have a lot to teach all of us about our priorities in our personal lives and congregational lives as well. Several times in his letters to Timothy Paul says, "I charge you" or he says, "charge them," as he urges Timothy to pass on some essential things to his congregation. In these days, when many around us consider truth to be relative and it is hard to know whom we can trust, it is important to be reminded of some non-negotiables in our Christian beliefs and practices.

I also am greatly anticipating the opportunity to teach a 9-10 week series of adult Sunday School classes, with a similar theme. "The Gospel in the Congregation." is a new study, hot off the press from Ambassador Publications, that does a great job summing up what makes the Association of Free Lutheran Congregations a unique and exciting mission of which to be a part. Have you ever wondered why the AFLC is so focused on the congregation, or why we are a fellowship of Lutheran congregations with no bishops, synods, or human authorities over us? This study taps into the Scriptural basis for our polity and teaches us in each local congregation how we all work together to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to build each other up in our faith.

I end with this relevant quote which I gleaned in some of my reading and forgot to record its source:

"The strength of the church of Christ is not in a strong hierarchy and ecclesiastical rule, but in a living congregation.... And while the world is in strife because power rises against power, we stand today in a peaceful home of the knowledge of Christ....."

Our theme verse in the AFLC is found in II Corinthians 3:17 - "Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom." There is no greater freedom than knowing our sins are forgiven in Jesus Christ, our eternal destiny is reserved with Him, and His Holy Spirit guides us individually and as a congregation, while we wait for Christ's return!

-Ashton is just a typical small town. But when a skeptical reporter and a pastor begin to compare notes, they suddenly find themselves fighting a hideous plot to subjugate the townspeople—and eventually the entire human race. A riveting thriller, This Present Darkness offers a fascinating glimpse into the unseen world of spiritual warfare.—

The Judge said to the defendant. "I thought I told you I never wanted to see you in here again." "Your honor," the defendant said, "that's what I tried to tell the police. But they wouldn't listen."

"Just the same" exclaimed Noah's wife, "I'd feel much safer if those two termites were locked up in a metal box."

JUST ONE MORE >>>>>>

"Anyone with needs to be prayed over, come forward, to the altar," the Preacher said. LeRoy gets in line, and when it's his turn, the preacher asks, "LeRoy, what do you want me to pray about for you?" LeRoy replied: "Preacher, I need you to pray for my hearing." The preacher puts one finger in LeRoy's ear, and he places the other hand on top of LeRoy's head and prays and prays. After a few minutes, the Preacher removes his hands, stands back and asks, "LeRoy, how is your hearing now?" LeRoy says, "I don't know, Reverend, it ain't 'til next Wednesday!"
