APRIL 2022

From Pastor Ryan...

We have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to Him. (Colossians 1:9-10 ESV)

During Pastor Lloyd's sermon last Sunday, I admit: I was a little distracted. Liz had taken our youngest, Declan, out into the Narthex so he could get out some of those wiggles that all kids who are going on two-years-old have. Our six-year-old daughter, Serena, was sitting quietly, working on a picture in a coloring book. And William, who will turn five in May, was laying on his back in the pew – feet up in the air, wildly kicking – all while not-so-quietly flying his little, metal airplane.

I'm going to make a statement that many would consider controversial in 2022 – especially in light of the prominence of individuals like Rachel Levine and Lia Thomas in the news as of late – but here it is: Boys and girls are different.

It is strange to even have to say that sentence. This reality used to be something that was self-evident. Today, however, it needs to be said and we need to define our terms when we say it.

From the Christian worldview, this difference is rooted in Creation (Genesis 1:26-27; 2:18-24) and is affirmed all throughout Scripture (Matthew 19:4; Ephesians 5:22-33; Colossians 3:18-19). Scripture does not teach that one sex is greater than the other and one sex can domineer over another. In Christ, we are equal (Galatians 3:27-28), yet with different roles and responsibilities (1 Corinthians 11:3; 1 Timothy 2:8-15). Boys and girls – created in the image of God – are different.

Both boys and girls need opportunities and programs that recognize their unique and valuable strengths and traits. There is no "one-sized-fits-all" box, either. Too often, boys are told to "sit quietly & pay attention" when they have wiggles to get out, airplanes that need to be flown, and bad guys who need to be defeated. Unfortunately, this rough-and-tumble-nature often gets labeled as a "learning disorder" and medication is prescribed – all for letting boys behave like boys.

We need to let boys be boys in a way that honors Christ, their neighbors, and themselves.

To that end, we are in the process of chartering a Trail Life USA (TLUSA) Troop here at Maranatha. Trail Life is a Christ-centered, church-owned & operated, outdoor-focused ministry for boys that places special attention on adventure, leadership, and character development from a Christian worldview. Their motto, Walk Worthy, is taken from Colossians 1:10, as quoted above. All boys are invited to join either the Woodlands Trail (K-5), the Navigators (6-8), or the Adventurers (9-12).

For those of you with boys (or have grandsons in the area), we would love for you to consider being a part of our Troop! This summer, we'll host some introductory events. Full kick-off will be in the late summer or early autumn. We'll also be needing some parents (especially fathers) to step up into key leadership positions. Keep an eye on this newsletter or find us on Facebook (search for Trail Life Troop MN-5318) for your invitation to join the trail!

And, by the way, for those of you who have young daughters, TLUSA has a sister organization called American Heritage Girls. They have many of the same values and emphases (they are a "fun-filled, Christ-centered, service-oriented, [and] outdoor-emphasized" group) but the program is geared for girls. I've been in contact with the AHG Headquarters about starting an AHG Troop at Maranatha as well – but they understand us starting one program at a time!

Kids: "The Friend Who Forgives" by Dan DeWitt and Catalina Echeverri. A true story about how Peter failed and Jesus forgave.

Adult Non-Fiction: In 1966, TIME magazine asked, "Is God Dead?" Over half a century later the question has changed. "Is Atheism Dead?", by Eric Metaxas, #1 best-selling author, answers that question.

Adult Fiction: "For Such A Time" by Kate Breslin. The year is 1944 in Auschwitz. God may have brought her to the concentration camp for such a time as this, but how can save her people when she cannot save herself?

Women's Serving Group III in Glyndon will be serving during the months of April, May and June. If you are part of this group please see schedule on Kitchen bulletin board for date of Sunday serving that will work best for you. Thank you for serving Maranatha in this area.

SALT TEENS

Wednesday evenings: Supper 5:00– 6:30pm & Lenten Service & 7:00-8:15pm at the church though April 6th. Regular Schedule begins on April 20th.

April 10 - Palm Sunday– Serving Brunch and being part of Worship service.

April 22-24 Campus Days at Free Lutheran Bible College in the cities. Talk with Pr. Ryan if planning to go

FLY BEYOND at the ARC in Wisconsin - July 17-21

SaltTeens: We are planning a trip to the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness from July 26-30. Due to permit restrictions, we are limiting this to the first 7 guys & 7 gals who register and pay a deposit of $140. Never none anything like this before? Don't worry. We are working with an outfitter in Ely, MN who will supply our canoes, paddles, PFDs, tents, and sleeping bags. We'll have one or two training meetings before the trip to get you acquainted with the basics of paddling & portaging. Even if you've never camped or canoed, this is an excellent chance to get your feet wet!!

July 26 will be a travel day to Ely. We'll spend the night in a bunkhouse before heading into the Wilderness. Our goal is to paddle & portage a good distance in, then camp for three nights on the beautiful Vera or Knife lakes. During the day, we'll canoe to various locations that include waterfalls, rocks that look like bacon, and hills that overlook 1/3 of the BWCA.

Questions? Ask Pr Ryan. And be sure to register at the link below: maranathafreelutheran.com/saltteens

We continue to look for commitments to donate to Narcice, Our Compassion Child from Togo, Africa.
